

Dear David,

This Friday, April 24th, I return to Sudan, travelling first in Yei for the second graduation of trained teachers from Yei Teacher's training College (YTTC). There will be some teachers in this group that I taught when I'd first arrived in Southern Sudan in August 2007. I'll be in Yei for about a week, attending also Across' semi annual staff retreat. Then, I leave for Adol, Dinka land, afterwards for an Adult Literacy Training. Will be there for about a month, then possibly back to Yei or to Juba, then back to Nairobi, possibly sometime in early June.

Thanks so much for praying for our retreat, that each of us will be refreshed as we stand in need, amen, and that we'd be closer knitted together as the One Body of Christ as we partake of the teaching, and other activities of the retreat, amen. Thanks, also, for your prayers for this Adol Training, that it will be most successful and profitable for each teacher that participates, and for excellent working relationship with my colleagues on the ground; and as ever, for all the grace and wisdom needed to keep all well in body, soul and spirit and to be most fruitful in the work I do whilst in Yei, Adol and wherever I am in Southern Sudan.

Lastly, thanks for remembering my family in your prayers, especially my dad, who has been in much pain lately, and my mom whose strength keeps decreasing and whose "mind is made for the worse."

May each of you continue to abide and abound in the riches of His Grace, amen.

In His Great Love,
Ingrid
